Adams Traditional Academy Dress Standards

Adams Traditional Academy has a uniform dress standard to allow students to focus on their academic responsibilities and promote a feeling of unity among all students attending. The uniform was created and organized to allow families the freedom to purchase uniforms from any source convenient to their local and financial circumstances.

Please refer to the following guidelines when acquiring uniforms for your student's wardrobe. If in doubt about an article of clothing, please contact the school office before purchasing. We ask not only for the students' commitment to our dress standards, but for the parents' as well.

All clothing should be clean, neat, and in properly fitting condition. Inappropriate attire is not limited to the following standards. Administration will have the discretion to make administrative decisions on inappropriate clothing and accessories.

This policy may be adjusted if stricter guidelines are required or if standards detract from the learning environment. Non-compliance with the dress standard will result in the issuing of a uniform violation and one or more of the following actions:

- Require that the child come to the office and wait for the parent to bring appropriate clothing.
- Removal of the inappropriate accessories, i.e. rings, makeup.

Uniform Violations: Four (4) uniform violations (grades K-3) or three (3) uniform violations (grades 4-8) in one grading quarter will result in a detention. Repeated violations will lead to increased consequences.

Shopping Resources: Many retailers have different versions of uniforms; please look closely at the clothes before purchasing. Some possible retailers include, but are not limited to, Walmart, Costco, Kohl's, Old Navy, Target, and The Children's Place.

Special Event Dress Code

In order to assure that student dress at 7/8 dances and special events is aligned to the school's philosophy of conservative dress, there are specific dress requirements for special events, including but not limited to periodic fine arts concerts, dances, and end-of-year ceremonies (such as commencement and graduation). The dress code for each event will be sent home prior to the event.
